RhIG Pharmacokinetics

Rhophylac can be administered either intramuscular (IM) or intravenously (IV).

For IM injections the half-life of the RhIG is 18±5 days.

For IV injections the half-life of the RhIG is 16±4 days.

Prior studies have demonstrated that regardless of route of administration that RhIG titers were detected in all women up to at least 9 weeks following administration of Rhophylac.