

Curriculum Vitae

Andrew M. Brittan M.D.

EXPERIENCE

9/2006 - Assistant Professor of Radiology and Radiological Sciences
Vanderbilt University Medical Center

7/1997 – 8/2006 Staff radiologist –United Radiology group

President – United Radiology Group (7/2005 – 7/2006)
Duties include overseeing office operations, scheduling 12 partners at our 10 facilities, and recruitment of new radiologists to the group. Also aggressive with recruitment of new hospital and clinic accounts. I researched and purchased a new web based teleradiology server for work sharing, and for implementation of new teleradiology outreach.

Medical Director of Radiology – Salina Regional Health Center
(7/2003 – 7/2004)

Duties include institution of new protocols with updated equipment, and institution of PACS system. Also act as a Liaison between medical staff and radiology department.

EDUCATION

7/1993 – 6/1997 – Residency in Diagnostic Radiology – University of Kansas

7/1992 – 6/1993 – Internship – St. Joseph Medical Center – Wichita, KS

8/1988 – 5/1992 – Medical Doctor – University of Kansas – Kansas City, KS

8/1980 – 5/1984 – Bachelor of Science (with honors) – Creighton University
Majors in Math and Economics, minor in Philosophy.

OTHER EXPERIENCE

5/1985 – 8/1986 – actuarial work BCBS of Kansas City

SKILLS

General radiology including mammography, nuclear medicine, PET, Angio/interventional, all cross sectional modalities along with plain film.

SPECIAL TRAINING

Continuing medical education yearly. New interest in Cardiac MRI, and Breast MRI.
Areas of Interest also include body imaging, and interventional radiology.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

American Board of Radiology certified.
ACR, RSNA

PERSONAL

43 years old, divorced, father of five. Main interests revolve around my children – who are getting older. Hobbies include investing, home improvement, gardening, working out.

REFERENCES

Furnished upon request.